

Christ The King Lutheran church, in North Torrance, will receive 70 new members in a special service on Sunday at 10:45 a.m. At the same service a class of adults, who have completed instruction, will be confirmed.

The building plans for the first unit have been completed and ground breaking for the new church will take place this month.

IF THOU must love me, let it be for nought Except for love's sake only.—Elizabeth B. Browning.

SHOW THIS TO YOUR HUSBAND!

Tell him it's you without an electric clothes dryer—tenderly protecting your nice clean (and still wet) wash because you got no cooperation from the weatherman.

Tell him the cure: a shiny new electric dryer. It saves you the lifting and bending and dependence on the weather. It saves clothes—they dry fluffier, cleaner and fresher smelling. They last longer, too.

Tell him it has to be an electric dryer, of course. Because it's so safe. Because you simply plug it in. And because it costs less to buy! (Electricity is your biggest bargain in modern living.)

St. Joseph's Celebration This Sunday

St. Joseph's Parish in Pueblo Center, 2341 203rd st., will have a Fiesta "a Jamaica" honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe, Sunday, December 9.

At 9:30 a.m. a High Mass will be celebrated on the open grounds of the Parish. After Mass, booths will be opened and the women will sell Spanish homemade foods. There will also be authentic and entertaining Indian dances.

Starting at 2:30 p.m. a religious procession will begin at Border ave. and Arlington ave. The procession will go north on Arlington till it reaches the Parish grounds where the Rosary will be recited and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament held.

In the beautiful float impersonating Our Lady of Guadalupe, Miss Lupita Valdivia, a student at El Camino college, will ride. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Valdivia.

Also on the float will be Inacio Ybarra, as Juan Diego, the humble Indian. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ybarra of Torrance.

The Pueblo Center of St. Joseph's parish issues an open invitation to all to attend this Gay Fiesta. It is a benefit affair for the improvement of St. Joseph's parish.

Temple Menorah Guest Friday

Occupying the pulpit as guest Rabbi of Temple Menorah, 112½ N. Catalina, Redondo Beach December 7, at 8:15 p.m., will be Rabbi Albert Lewis of Temple Isaiah, Los Angeles.

Rabbi Lewis, who will officiate at religious services that evening, has chosen as his sermon, "Your Jewish Life Expectancy."

Rev. Wells came to the church as Pastor in 1950. The church was then housed in one building with 3,200 square feet, located on Narbonne Avenue at 248th Street. They owned three lots at that time. Now the church owns property on both sides of Narbonne Avenue at 248th Street. They have increased their building size to 18,900 square feet of floor space.

Baptists Celebrate 12th Anniversary

A double anniversary will be observed this Sunday. The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church will be 12 years old. It is also the sixth anniversary of their Pastor, Robert A. Wells. The church began in a small building on Lomita Blvd. in 1944 and moved to their present location in 1945.
